Continuation of Disposition of Claims: Claims pending in the application are 1-5,9-12,21-30,33,35-38,41-43,46-49,52-56,59-62,65-68,71-76 and 79-83.

DETAILED ACTION

Continued Examination Under 37 CFR 1.114

A request for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, including the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e), was filed in this application after final rejection. Since this application is eligible for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, and the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e) has been timely paid, the finality of the previous Office action has been withdrawn pursuant to 37 CFR 1.114. Applicant's submission filed on May 28, 2010 has been entered.

Claims 6-8, 13-20, 31-32, 34, 39-40, 44-45, 50-51, 57-58, 63-64, 69-70, 77-78, and 84-85 have been cancelled. Consequently, claims 1-5, 9-12, 21-30, 33, 35-38, 41-43, 46-49, 52-56, 59-62, 65-68, 71-76, and 79-83 are pending in the instant application, of which claims 26-30, 33, 46-49, 52-56, 59-62, 65-68, 71-76, and 79-83 have been withdrawn from further consideration as being drawn to a non-elected invention.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless -

(a) the invention was known or used by others in this country, or patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country, before the invention thereof by the applicant for a patent.

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

Art Unit: 1645

1. The rejection of claims 1-5, 9-12, 21-25, 35-38, and 41-43 under 35 U.S.C. 102(a) & e) as anticipated by or, in the alternative, under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as obvious over Mahan et al in view of May et al is maintained.

Applicants have filed a Declaration under 37 CFR 1.131 to show conception coupled with diligence prior to US Publication 2002/0068068. Applicants further assert that the Declaration shows several bacterial species, including pathogenic gram negative bacteria, which do not have the dam gene within their genome.

Applicants arguments and Declaration have been fully considered but are not found to be persuasive.

First, Applicants have filed a Declaration under 37 CFR 1.131 to show conception coupled with diligence prior to US Publication 2002/0068068. However, ordinarily an applicant may use an affidavit of prior invention under 37 CFR 1.131 to overcome a rejection under 35 U.S.C. 102(a) or 102(e). An exception to the rule arises when the reference is a patent or application published under 35 U.S.C. 122(b) and the reference has claims directed to the same patentable invention as the application claims being rejected. 37 CFR 1.131(a)(1). The reason for this exception is that priority is determined in an interference when the claims interfere. 35 U.S.C.

Art Unit: 1645

135(a). In such a case, the applicant must make the priority showing under 37 CFR 41.202(d) instead. (See MPEP 2305) (Emphasis added). Since, US Publication 2002/0068068 has claims directed to a non-pathogenic strain of Pasteurella multocida having an altered DNA adenine methylase activity; structurally identical to the attenuated strain of Pasteurella multocida having altered DNA adenine methylase activity such that the bacteria are attenuated of the instantly filed claim 1; Applicants Declaration under 37 CFR 1.131 is insufficient to overcome the rejection of record.

Finally, Applicants assert that the Declaration shows several bacterial species, including pathogenic gram negative bacteria, which do not have the dam gene within their genome. However, this argument is unpersuasive, since as set forth above, Mahan et al has claims directed to a non-pathogenic strain of Pasteurella multocida having an altered DNA adenine methylase activity. (See claim 12).

The claims are directed to an attenuated strain of a bacteria of the species Pasteurella multocida, said bacteria comprising altered DNA adenine methylase (Dam) activity such that the bacteria are attenuated.

Mahan et al (US Publication 2002/0068068) disclose of compositions containing pathogenic bacteria having non-reverting genetic mutations which alter activity of DNA adenine methylase (Dam) resulting in attenuation and methods of using these compositions to elicit an immune response to produce antibodies. (See abstract and claims). Mahan et al specifically set forth that the starting bacteria, to which a mutation of DNA adenine methylase was done, included Pasteurella multocida. (See detailed paragraph 88; and claims 11-12).

For reasons of record as well as the reasons set forth above, this rejection is maintained.

All claims are drawn to the same invention claimed in the earlier application and could have been finally rejected on the grounds and art of record in the next Office action if they had been entered in the earlier application. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL even though it is a first action in this case. See MPEP § 706.07(b). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no, however, event will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
